

PAI provides a comprehensive array of training programmes catered to a large variety of people ranging from Professional Development for education professionals to Academic Accreditation for learners. Representing renowned local and overseas trainers specializing in different areas of thinking, teaching and learning, we aim to provide a holistic range of programmes that encompasses the different facets and people involved in education.